

SIDE ENTRANCE CARS ORDERED BY WEST PENN RAILWAYS CO.

Will Be the Very Latest Type of Trolley Car, Safer and Will Carry More Passengers.

WILL BE BUILT OF STEEL

The Cars It Is Expected Will Be In Service During the Coming Summer—Now Latest Type Used on Interurban Roads.

The West Penn Railways Company is about to make some very important additions to its rolling stock, which cannot help but elicit much interest upon the part of the public. The new cars, which will be the best of the car builder's art, will have many new and interesting features developed by the company. They will be of the central entrance type, a new and important object in car construction, with the weight per seated passenger very low.

The length of the cars will be 38 feet, having a width of 8 feet 6 inches and a seating capacity of 76 persons, will at once increase the reader with the fact that a car of unusual attractiveness is now to be installed in the service of the West Penn system.

A central aisle with a double row of seats of standard make and being universally adopted by all railway companies for city and interurban service, will be a pleasing feature. The interior of the car will be very light and cheerful. There being no door at either end of these cars, the seats will be carried forward to the end windows, alike at both ends and with the floor being flush and a rail enclosure for the motorman, these cars will present one of the newest features in the observation end type.

Ingress and egress to these cars will be at the side through a system of double folding doors so arranged that no difficulty will be experienced by passengers getting on or off. These doors will be operated by door operating levers which the conductor will control from his position within the car.

These cars are to be of steel construction, supported upon the latest type improved railway trucks and have an equipment of interlocking motors of 35 H. P. to each car with a suitable type of control for same. The heating of these cars will be by means of electric car heaters and a ventilation system consisting of a motor driven fan for circulating the air through ducts arranged in the car for that purpose. Every means possible has been considered for the comfort, convenience and safety of the passengers and not only this but for the transportation of baggage and parcels ample provision has been made, thus insuring to the friends and patrons of the West Penn Railways a system complete in every detail.

The smoking section, so popular on the "600" type of cars, will be embodied in the new models. Half of the car will be used for seated passengers. There will be two sections in the other half for men only, one being for smokers.

The deck ventilators are abandoned and the roof of the car is the turtle-back style. The ventilators used at present are objectionable because they will work loose and leak when the car is running through a driving rain.

THROUGH TRAINS ON NEW RAILROAD.

Connellsville Will Likely Be Point Crews Will Change.

EQUIPMENT TO GO THROUGH

Some Announcement on the Running of Trains Is Expected Before Long. Service From Baltimore to Chicago.

Under the traffic alliance agreement entered into between the Western Maryland Railway Company and the New York Central railroad, the latter road contemplates running passenger trains through to Baltimore from Pittsburgh and the West. At the same time the Western Maryland will arrange to operate passenger trains over its lines and the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, a subsidiary of the New York Central, through to Pittsburgh from Baltimore.

Information to this effect was obtained from a reliable source, and it is expected that some official announcement concerning the running of both the Western Maryland and New York Central trains will be forthcoming shortly.

In this connection it is also possible that sleepers from Baltimore without change over to Chicago without change over the combined lines of the Western Maryland and the New York Central.

The plan for operating the through passenger trains under the traffic alliance has not yet been fully worked out, but before the Western Maryland completes the extension soon to be built from Cumberland, Md., to Connellsville, this subject will be taken up and some plan decided upon which will be decidedly satisfactory to the operating officials of both companies.

It is understood that only the equipment of both lines will make the through trips and changes of crews will be made at Connellsville.

This is at least the plan which has been tentatively outlined, and it is believed that some such arrangement will be provided for when the matter is taken up for official discussion. It is the hope that these through trains will be put in service immediately after the new extension is constructed by the Western Maryland is finished.

He comes back so enthused with that country that immediate preparations are being made to move Mrs. Brown and the little ones to a farm in the vicinity of Brownsville.

"There is always something doing around Brownsville," he said today. "The town itself isn't exciting enough, there is enough across the Mexican line, where chicken lights are the popular sport."

Mr. Brown visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, who are pleasantly situated on a profitable farm. The Duncans like it so well that they have no desire to move away from that section.

DOUBLE LAST YEAR'S NUMBER

Connellsville Board Expects To Be Able to Give Results in About Ten Days—Uniontown Also Has Big Class of Aspirants.

To a growing demand for men for the position of fire boss about the mines of the Bituminous region, the scheme of education inaugurated by the H. C. THE PUNISHMENT
THAT FITS THE CRIME.

The Lawrence county authorities have discovered the punishment that fits the crime in the case of petty offenders who come often before the bar of justice in order to board out their offenses at the cost of the county. The New Castle Herald explains it thus:

The case of the excellent results accomplished last summer and fall in the experiment of having jail prisoners work upon the highways, the plan is being put into practice again this spring.

The idea has many things in its favor and no serious objection has been urged against it. It is especially a place of punishment, but the punishment must not be cruel or unusual. It is neither cruel nor unusual for men to work upon the highway. No objection is to be framed against the idea of activity for men sentenced to jail. Persons confined there awaiting trial are not asked to go upon the road with a view to earning money to help pay the cost of their confinement.

The plan now being put into practice has already shown to have a very beneficial influence upon habitual petty offenders, who have habitually regarded sentences to jail confinement. But when they have found themselves forced to work in public highways, as well as in the county jail, they have been entirely different persons. Few men sink as low as to lose all self respect and this dominant quality has been aroused in many a habitual offender by the danger that he would be forced to appear in the road again.

Here the tendency of instilling prisoners in jail is reduced, as well as the cost for keeping up highways, as the taxpayers are benefited doubly. The Courier has frequently urged this form of punishment both in Lawrence county and the county, but it has never been put into practice. At one time the Town Council thought well enough of it to purchase some ball-and-chain outfits, but a loud protest went up from sentimentalists, and the ball-and-chain outfits were sold for junk, and the town continues to keep a second-class boarding house for the hobo element.

This is the most extravagant and the least efficient method of dealing with this class.

REGULATING THE AUTOMOBILES.

At the instance of the Burgess the Public Safety Committee will formulate an ordinance regulating the running of motor cars within the borough.

Automobiles were purchased some time ago, but they were never placed. There will be put up an effort made to prohibit reckless speeding and driving in the town and especially along crowded thoroughfares.

This action is timely and proper. The average automobile driver is prone to think that it is the business of the public to desire him or suffer the consequences, when in a matter of fact it is his duty to fear, the his speed and control in absolute safety so far as others are concerned.

The frequent highways of the town are not intended as speedways for the motor car or any other vehicle. The rights of pedestrians are paramount, and it is the duty of the authorities to see that they are respected.

The Uniontown papers are always pointing to the town's postoffice receipts as proof of its growth over neighboring towns, and as they are, it is not surprising to find business comparisons in the case of Uniontown. The business here is merely a factor in a larger effort. The figures tell the story of a steady growth rather than a strong multiple growth.

J. Frost had to do the goat act. It is not often that a judge passes upon his own case, but in an orphan's court it is different. The judge is a judicial orphan.

Colonel Roosevelt is taking at other honeymoon, but he promises to be his own boss agent if the press boys leave him alone awhile.

The rumor that Senator Dewart is going to resign as chief of the Federal rail freight bill this year seems beyond comprehension.

What the weather did eight years ago will not repeat it this year.

Sunday joy dances in the hillside. Klondike will not receive judicial sanction.

A New York lawyer who is counsel for an accused Pittsburgh briber says that city is excited over graft. It is.

South Connelville needs a policeman. If this community were a portion of the borough it would have a policeman, not to mention other desirable things.

The Western Maryland contract is reported to have been let, and it now remains to be settled.

The military inspections are on their way.

The Democratic factions of Pennsylvania are animated with all the confidence of an off-year. It will be off to them all right.

The Scotland man who threw at a bull and killed a cow didn't have a bully sin.

"A new railroad station," and "A new public park and playground" are Pittsburgh's slogans. The slogan sound like personal comfort and pleasure rather than new industries and better business.

California is a growing town, especially during the normal school term.

WASHINGTON
CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, April 8, 1910.
The village gossip here have delivered the verdict. Neighbor Taft is a "dumbhead." Not a mild "dumbhead," who made a little noise and then, but a real, all-around-and-a-yard-wide "dumbhead," who is on the go all the time. And if you don't believe it look at the record.

The White House household has been singularly deserted since the Taft regime began. When he is not traveling outside of Washington, dinners, parties, balls, banquets, conventions, the theatre, social and business gatherings of all kinds, drag the Presidential presence from the Executive roof-trees and the said presence seems not to be adverse to being dragged away. On the contrary it seems to enjoy it.

Probably two-thirds of the "accusations" have demanded speeches, promptly or otherwise. Several million words of public speaking have been turned out by the President in the last year. At least two nights a week, when he is in Washington, the President attends the theatre. Often he first takes in the play, and afterwards hurries away to some other function, a dinner or dance. It is strange that the President must do that. He is not a "dumbhead," the famous Taft smile is growing gray.

Probably no other President ever put the physical effort into reading and writing that Taft does. Certainly he holds the record for continuous performances. Two engagements in an evening with three speeches to deliver is no uncommon thing for him.

Besides all this, President Taft does a real day's work every day. He is up at 7 or a half hour's hard exercise in the physical training, who could hold his physical as strenuous course of "rotting up" drills and shadow boxing before the day's business begins. From 10 to 12 he is at the Executive office, attending to a list of householders, and handling executive business and legislative matters. At 2 a short hour for lunch and he is back on the job until six. From then on he is busy with his daily walk, hurrying back to the White House for dinner, and to prepare for the afternoon evening, with his theatre, dinners and speeches.

All this is wearing down the avoirdupois of the Executive, but the ones who are getting prostration over it are the Secret Service men. To them the President's program means work almost without end. Hundreds of petty details must be attended to every time the President goes to the theatre or takes a walk and it is up to the Secret Service men to walk around to do the work. Just now they are thinking fondly of the luxurious (somebody says) which hard work could not be done. It is a 20-mile ride through a rain storm, or a 10-mile horseback ride, and it did not involve six nights a week of social functioning.

The State Department always knew that Thomas H. Norton was a versatile sort of a fellow. He was born in New York and educated in Ohio. That is the reason he was given the post of Consul at Chemnitz, Saxony. But not until his last report came in did Secretary Knox fully realize Norton's capacity for research, or his powers of observation.

"If late years there has been dissatisfaction over the inability of history, especially the due regard to four where the ordinary horse supporters are hooked or attached," says the "Connellsville Herald," "these complaints have appeared as the old-fashioned saddle has been steadily discarded for the more modern and hygienic supporter. Two new styles of Chemnitz history have appeared, warranted free from defect. In the first design, an additional 'quarter well' is built about the top and forms a constituent part of the stock. Four inches below the customary well. The additional cost per dozen pair is 12 cents.

"A second design presents two broad loops on opposite sides of a stock, starting five inches below the top. They are one inch wide and an inch and a half long, formed during the operation of knitting and constitute an integral part of the stocking. Supporters can easily be attached to these loops, but the results of wear cannot extend to the stocking proper. The addition costs 10 cents per dozen pairs of hose."

HUMDINGER

This may seem like a queer name for a shoe manufacturer to give to a shoe, but it is the name given to one of the snappiest shaped lasts that can be had in Men's $3.50 Shoes. You can't help but notice this shoe—it has the new high toe—high heel—fancy toe caps—perforated vamp seams—it has everything that belongs to the up to date shoes. In leathers and shoe-making you will find this shoe superior to most shoes sold at $3.50. It wears well, looks well and stays looking well. It's strictly a shoe for young men and we know they will appreciate it.

THIS SCOTSDALE COUPLE'S PLANS.

Dr. Arthur Waide and Miss Laura Lenhart to Wed Soon.

GO TO EUROPE FOR HONEYMOON

J. R. Stauffer Says That This Spring Has Closely Resembled the One That Preceded the Great June Frost. Other News Notes.

SCOTSDALE, April 8.—The announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Laura Lenhart of Broadway and Dr. Arthur Waide of Pittsburgh street, the marriage to be a home event, at the near future. Both are popular young people of town with many friends who wish them all happiness. The bride-to-be is a niece of Samuel F. Todd and has managed his home for a number of years. Dr. Waide came to Scotland about 11 years ago and has built up a large practice in the medical profession. He has been for a number of years Superintendent of the Episcopal Sunday School here, while his bride-to-be is a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Immediately following the ceremony the couple will leave for New York from whence they will sail for Europe for a three months' stay with the doctor's relatives in England, and in visiting various places of interest in Europe. Upon their return the doctor will purchase Mr. Todd's handsome stone residence on Broadway at the end of the viaduct and will establish his office there.

The Show Was Great.

The second annual exhibition given by the Physical Department of the Y. M. C. A. at the opera house last evening was an unequalled success from all standpoints. John H. Adams, the physical director, had on the direction of the affair and took part in it with great credit to himself and the boys whom he drills in building up good physiques, making them alert and capable on their feet. To many the exhibition was a revelation of the great educational work that is being carried on by the association among the physical men. There was nothing dull in the long program, and the generous applause that marked everything was a good indication of the appreciation felt by those present of the efforts of the boys to entertain from little tags that could not much more than go through their stunts to the larger boys who performed difficult feats with the ease and precision of professionals there was a spirit of endeavor that was most praiseworthy. Albert and David Robinson were featured in a spirited boxing bout and then in a interesting and lively wrestling match that took the house. The trapeze work of J. H. Adams, R. W. Kohn and Milford H. Gibson was thrilling and embraced many difficult feats. Dr. A. Waide made the inspiration speech for a number of men prizes for the year's work. The exhibition was a great illustration of the excellent work being done by the Y. M. C. A. in physical culture among the boys and it is only a pity that the girls of town do not have a similar opportunity for physical culture.

Weather Was Dangerous.

With the clearing of the sky last evening and the cold spell in evidence there was a great deal of fear that there would be a frost that would put an end to the crops of fruit crops this year. However, so far as learned this morning there was no frost, although there was a frost on Joseph R. Stauffer, the banker, who has kept a close record of another conditions for many years was asked about the season last evening. Mr. Stauffer says that this spring has closely followed with this year, the great June frost of 1879, when corn, wheat, rye and fruit were simply cooked.

Mr. Stauffer says that he recalls the time very distinctly, that he got three men to plowing corn on his farm northeast of town that day, the corn being jointed and knee high, and on some of the best ground being waist high. Then he mounted a horse and rode to Dawson, and having started out without an overcoat, nearly froze before he got back home. This was on June 15th and on his way home he stopped at the old Washington school house and voted at an election that was being held there. Then on Saturday night fell the terrible frost that leveled the fields of their crops and spread consternation over the country.

HOFFSTOT MAY MAKE BIG FIGHT.

Confers With Attorneys as to Returning to Pittsburg.

WILL MAKE DECISION TODAY

If the Capitalist Elects to Remain in
New York Extradition Proceedings
Will Be Started at Once—No Cases
For Trial This Week.

Pittsburg, April 8.—Whether Frank N. Hoffstot, president of the German National bank of Allegheny, who has been indicted on charges of conspiracy and bribery in connection with the counsellor's graft investigation, will return to Pittsburg to give evidence before the grand jury or elect to remain in New York and fight extradition, will be decided soon.

Attorney W. B. Rodgers left for New York last night with copies of the Hoffstot indictment and will confer with the grand jury and his New York counsel upon his arrival there today. If Mr. Hoffstot refuses to come here, it is said that information will be made against him at once by District Attorney Whitman of New York. At the same time District Attorney Blakeley will start proceedings to have him extradited. However, nothing will be done until the district attorney hears from Attorney Rodgers.

District Attorney Blakeley and First Assistant Warren I. Seymour are at work with the grand jury cleaning up the graft investigation. Most of the story has been told but the remaining testimony it is said will make some sensational revelations.

Just how much longer the investigation will continue Mr. Blakeley will not say. He declared, however, that every phase of the counsellor's bribery will be investigated thoroughly before the grand jury is dismissed. None of the men indicted in the bribery cases will be called for trial until after the investigation has closed. The district attorney and his assistants are too busy with the probe to take up the trials at this time. It is not believed they will be reached next week.

Assistant Prosecutor Seymour has not yet delivered to Judge Frezer his brief quoting authorities in opposition to the plea of Attorney William I. Brennan to have indictments quashed on the grounds that Harrison Nesbitt, foreman of the grand jury, is not a qualified elector of Pennsylvania.

"PUBLIC DEMANDED GOAT"

Says Attorney Larkin, and Selected Hoffstot the Candidate.

New York, April 8.—Adrian H. Larkin, personal counsel for Frank N. Hoffstot, president of the German National bank of Allegheny, Pittsburg, and president of the Pittsburg Steel Car company, said that the indictment of Hoffstot by the Pittsburg grand jury on charges of bribery and conspiracy was the result of hysterical public sentiment in Pittsburg due to recent graft disclosures.

The public demanded a scapegoat," said Mr. Larkin, "so the grand jury picked out Mr. Hoffstot as a likely candidate. The selection was probably influenced by the fact that Hoffstot had business relations with the late J. W. Friend. But as far as justice of the indictment is concerned, the grand jury might just as well have brought in a presentment against you or me or John Smith of Hoboken. "And mark my word if there is here any evidence brought forward against Hoffstot it is perjured."

COPS BUSY AT MEAT RIOTS

Twelve Women Arrested For Terrorizing New York Butchers.

New York, April 8.—Riotous meat riots broke out again in Harlem and twelve women were taken in by the police for terrorizing butchers.

EUROPE SHAKES WITH FEAR

Vienna Doesn't Know What May Happen When Teddy Comes. London, April 8.—According to a Central News dispatch from Vienna, the advent of Colonel Roosevelt is awaited by the official world with the greatest nervousness. According to this dispatch, the lack of tact shown by Roosevelt in Egypt and Italy has inspired fears that during his Hungarian visit he will do something to prejudice the delicate relations between Austria and Hungary.

The comments of continental papers on the trouble between the pope and Colonel Roosevelt continue. The Germania, the chief Catholic organ of north Germany, concludes that the so-called break of Colonel Roosevelt is due solely to the bluntness of the American character. But, the Germania adds, Colonel Roosevelt forgot that the Vatican also has a sense of humor.

AMMONIA BATHS

At Sing Sing Prison Are Regularly Given, Testifies Convict.

White Plains, N. Y., April 8.—Frank Shapiro, an East Indian, who is on trial for assaulting a keeper at Sing Sing prison, caused a sensation when he declared on the stand that the keepers gave prisoners in the dark cells "ammonia baths."

Shapiro described in detail how the keepers squirted ammonia into the cells through holes in the doors with hose syringes, and that an "injection" was made two and three times a day. Shapiro claims that the ammonia fumes in the closed up cells are stifling. He caused surprise when he stated that a great many prisoners have knives in their cells, and the knife with which he slashed a keeper he purchased from a fellow prisoner for 25 cents.

Delightful Millinery

Exclusive Styles That Add to Your Dress the Touch of Individuality.

One of the busiest spots in our store is the Millinery Department—and why shouldn't it be with its attractive creations in such charming variety. There is a shape for every face and the all-pervading atmosphere of refined taste combines in harmony, without a jarring note, the favored colors of Fashion.

There are some exceptionally good models for Misses and Children. We want to especially mention the "Parkway" and "Countess." The former is a school and street hat in Panama and Java with wide, pliable brim that can be shaped to suit the wearer; esarf trimmed and very attractive. The Countess is a burnt straw sailor with velvet tailored bow; a popular hat for street wear.

An attractive collection of new models at this popular price. They are really worth more but we are trying to see how much style and beauty we can put into our $5.00 hats—and when you see them you will agree that it is a very delightful assortment. There are turbans, toques, mushroom shapes and roll fronts; made of Pyroxaline and Raine braid trimmed with flowers, ribbons, foliage and wings; a larger line than we have ever before carried.

Stenographers make their time between lights. In are to be used, and if any dispute comes up the judges can turn to the Congress. Mrs. Longworth has organized a story telling club, with a min-note and read the stories over again and then as a side issue, and has given during the sessions of Congress, but the invited guests will be few and very select. Mrs. Longworth is preparing to suit for Europe to join her father, Colonel Roosevelt, but in the meantime a sample story telling evening is to be held, and it is said the list of guests has been limited to 50.
